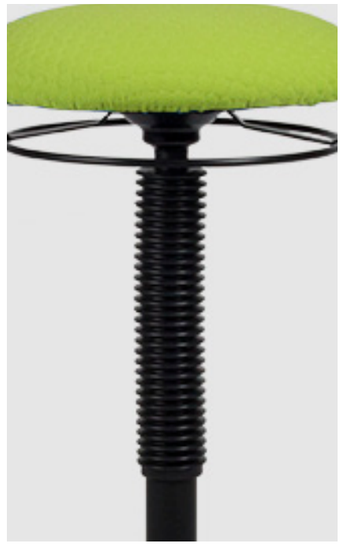
TETHER



Tether

Note to self: Never only take one half of a hot air balloon lesson. To be fair, I was on a tight deadline and my date wasn't going to wait around forever. Plus, we now co-own a world record. How romantic is that? I only wish I had brought along more crackers and cheese for the highest hot air balloon rescue of all time.

FEATURES

TETHER When dreaming up your next great idea, it can feel like you might literally float away. The Tether provides the perfect seat to keep you grounded while still allowing your mind to take flight. It's full range of motion, 360° pneumatic mechanism, and 10° tilt allow for limitless mobility while navigating your next record breaking plan. Just don't wander too far. You've got dinner plans at 6.
